

A Word from the Lord

awordfromthelord.blog

The intention for these pages, is for the encouragement, edification and exhortation of the Body of Christ. The words are meant for believers in Christ. Each one has been born out of prayer supplication and my journey with the Lord. May those who read the Word of the Lord hear what it is the Spirit is saying. 1 Peter 4:11

I do not for the most part, include scriptures references, but encourage for the readers to seek them out as part of the discerning process – as we are instructed in the 1 John 4:1; ‘Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God;’

Believe in Me.

For I am the Light. Look for Me, wait for Me, watch for Me for surely as you do I will be found by you.

The problem with many is that they do not want to see Me – just aspects of who they think I am. So, they never will see truth because what they see is partial which and easily distorted.

My way demands full attention but sadly people come to Me like one comes to a buffet table where they pick and choose what appeals to their appetite.

I look for the one who will have Me in all I desire to bring. For each one is ever so precious and I desire to enter in and fully be present so that I may be Lord in all and of all in that life, for this is where this one will experience my fullness and be ever satisfied.

Truth

Truth has always been and remains in Me. I am the source of Truth and speak it continually. Truth is Life and Truth is the Way – you will never by no means get lost. For too often Truth is given up for lies thereby nullifying the power that Truth naturally has. The power of truth does not allow anything other than life to have its way. Truth is the answer for which are all the questions searching for it. This Truth frees and is freeing. The purity of Truth is as the purity of gold – precious and of value. Seek it with all your heart, mind and soul and you will surely find it.

“I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me.” John 14:16

Be Still and know that I am God

Be still, and know that I am God. Settle everything that comes to distract and cause you anxiety upon who I am. Let all this that seeks to occupy you be absorbed into the truth of who I am. Deal with each as a transaction. You have worry? Take it and place it upon me and receive My peace. You are plagued with the needs and wants in today's world? Take and place them upon Me and receive My contentment. As these come again to harass you, remind them and yourself that 'I have Christ's peace and am still in His arms' or, 'I am content in Christ and have need for nothing – in Him' This is my heavenly economy – that the world knows nothing about for they are transactions that are priceless and full of great power. As you invite me into your daily living and struggles the power and influence of the enemy will weaken over you in areas that you deal with in this way. Be warned as you lend to them, you essentially are giving glory to evil– which invites and invokes more of its hold upon you and your situation. But, as you look to Me, and ascribe to Me your full attention and acknowledgement of who I am you are making the way for my cleansing of all the evil and distractions that are there to snare you. Do not speak into the 'power' of negativity around you. Don't say things like 'my day is going bad because of such and such' or even think such things. Because you are giving the forces of evil glory, which allows it the power and influence over you. Even when you think or say such things but pray to me regarding them – your prayer is held back because of the honouring you are doing by giving it glory – for I share my glory with no one! Therefore I cannot participate in your plea....no matter how sincere you are. You must repent in that you give the evil around you the honour that you have first – than you may come to Me. The psalmist David spoke about the negative around him and in most of his writings was a 'But' there is power in that but! You can speak to me about your 'bad day', telling me all about what is happening and then go on to say...but my God is greater! Oh yes, there is power in that! It must be more than words you speak – you must live and believe what it is you speak. You cannot recite who I am on one hand and live contrary to this by living a life of sin. It is amazing on how many of my children expect Me to move on their behalf – while they choose to sin in their daily life. Oh that my children would repent and choose to follow me with all their heart! For they would experience my love, my power and a sound mind.

Praise- the power and victory

As one walks upon the narrow way they are not subject to the wiles of the wicked one, but to Me. Yet, they are very much touched daily with the effects of sin and death in and among the world. But, as they walk among this, they draw from my Life and power to overcome the attempts that assail them daily. As My life flows through such a one, they are like magnets that draw good and are like healing stations on a planet that is dominated by death and destruction. In the power of praise to My name they are untouchable for the evil forces hate and cannot get near to such acts of worship. So I say sing! Sing to Me in your routines, let your heart declare My love and goodness to the open air! For in doing so it is like spraying the most powerful disinfectant known to man! It destroys all the evil in its reach. Clarity will follow. You will see that it is like this; I am substance and that which is evil is full of hot air! Evil needs a willing vessel to feed off of for its power to come into effect. In the act of declaring praise and thanksgiving to Me, the power evil has, in your situation and around you will weaken and even disappear! For in praise you invite My presence into wherever it is you are – it is vast and far too deep for the human mind to comprehend. If it were to be made into a movie, it would be most thrilling and exhilarating what takes place in the spirit. And when my people praise unto my name they are doing battle! And are destined for victory! On the other hand, Satan dwells in the atmosphere of condemnation – the acts of sin and death is where he draws his power. Glory not in his activity – which is giving attention to his impact – instead, fortify your walls! Make your gates praise and your walls salvation unto Lord! For my ways are what is true – praises bring what is true, good and right into what presents and this is the recipe for my victory on earth.

The Narrow Road

Be of good cheer! For I have overcome the world – enter in My joy! Fill up what is lacking in you through and by Me. This life (in Christ) is more about the filling up of your entire being – My Son which is the continual recognizing and adjusting to My Son. While this is lived through your practice all that the soul has collected in their lives – that are lies that bring death will come to the surface and spill out and though it be a loss you will count it as gain! For those who truly live their lives in Me think not about it being about giving up as so some sorrowful thing. That way of thinking – that one must give up (what they love) stems from the liar, Satan and his philosophy. I am the way, I am the truth, I am the life and those who choose to follow Me will by no way lose their way. Choosing to follow Me is not a one time choice as many have been led to believe, but instead is a choice that is for every moment of every day. My Son's life demands this. This is why My people are few, for not many are willing to walk in this road that leads to life. My ways are simple. Ask and you will receive. Knock and the door opened. Enter into My rest – though My way is narrow, it is not hidden to the eyes and hearts that truly search for Me.

Freedom from what Binds

Declare Me in every moment – even in the secret places...the dark places by planting a flag in the spirit, that declares my ownership in the particular matter you are struggling with or in! In your meditation think of this – that I am in these places, my presence and power, and then praise Me in the places you have planted the flags bringing glory to My name in these matters - praise declaring the victory you have in Me. In so doing I will enter in and claim back what was stolen. Do this and you will be free. You see, where my Spirit is, there is freedom. Do not allow the wrong, the mistakes, the outcome of sin to speak – for death has no say when you turn your attention on to Me. In the deepest of sin, invite me in to this place and see what I will do! I desire to take you out from the dark crevices and bring you into the marvelous light!

Note: examples of declaration may be:

'Jesus, I invite you into my love for alcohol - and I plant a flag that signifies I declare you as owner in this matter! I praise your name in this place! You are greater, and break the chains - you are Lord in this place!'

'Jesus, I invite you in this place of torment and hurt in my heart for _____ who has violated me and abused me - You are Lord in this matter! Have your way.'

Blessing or Cursing

Delight yourself in the Lord and He will give you the desires of your heart.

These are not mere words, but a promise I give to those who will hear and do what it is I explain. I am greatly pleased towards those who delight themselves in Me. I am like a magnet to such a one for I cannot help but to be drawn towards them. It is true as well in the opposite, for those who do not take delight in Me and even avoid me because they do not like the things pertaining to God, to these ones I do not draw near to, for they have put up a wall of separation between us. It is by the choice they make to avoid me that there becomes a wall of separation. Even those who are mine can do this. For there may be areas in their lives that they do not want me to go near, because they want to continue doing it, hiding it or denying it, so because they do not confess it before me and desire to have me look at it and speak into it – they do not delight in me, in my ways and my words, they are in fact displaying that they do not want me involved. Sin always gives birth to death. So when they choose to avoid me in this way, they give birth to the sin and harbour death. Death can come in many forms. Torment is one. Fear. The fruit is clear to a keen eye. There is a hiding of some sort and a heaviness. It is the opposite of my giving to those who delight in me, the desires of their heart. To the one who does not take delight in Me they will surely get the desires of their heart – which are evil and will bring to them death and it comes by the hand of evil. Man will get the desires of their heart either way, but when you take delight in Me, that will yield blessing. The opposite, cursing.

What I have Given you

I have given you My Son. In Him I am well pleased and oh how I love Him so. He and I are in complete fellowship together, we agree in everything there is no contention. I have given Him all things and He has made all things to be through Him. Our relationship is something that cannot be comprehended on an earthly level. It is pure and holy. He is my heart's desire and has fulfilled Me as Father.

We created you in love. You are our joy and delight. It had to be so, where I gave my Son for the redemption of man – there was no other way, as there was no greater love that could cover such sin! I, was like Abraham – but, I from my own hand DID slay my Son – My beloved!! At the moment of My slaying Him, the scavengers of evil of every kind set in - My love for Him – the pain of a Father.....was there as I watched Him be abused, tormented and tortured. It would be something of a different entirety if He had deserved what He endured, but He was the perfection of what I desire! He had no sin in Him, His love for Me was perfect and demonstrated through and through – He did not waver – even under the weight of all sin – He never sinned. Yet He became sin- took on its disgusting stench so that I no longer could look at Him, I could no longer approve of Him – He was dead to me. That hour was the most heart wrenching moment for the both of us and mankind will never understand. But oh how this was the power that rent the veil of the temple in two! This was the power that shook the whole earth! He overcame – for you and triumphed – just as we had planned it out from the beginning. Out of His death came the life that we have desired for mankind from the beginning of time – rich, full and in fellowship with us. A price had to be paid for such an expensive debt. What we have done, must never be taken for granted. Unfortunately this is the case. Though it was of great cost to us because it cost nothing to those who would receive it – it easily is treated more like a bargain does for those who stumble upon a 'good deal' – they are thrilled to receive such a good deal and feel the high of the value but because they go no further to discover the meaning of this 'bargain' it becomes a mere commodity to them where they operate in a what's in it for me relationship.

Our hearts break at the watching of this among the assemblies for they become like spoiled children who begin to demand and expect out of the richness that is provide them. This is something that we do not condone – nor are we ever part of. For it is earthly and sensual and every demonic thing congregates there.

No, many are led by their lusts who think they are believers of the way, but this is the question that will be asked on that very important day to which they will have to answer;

What did you do with My Beloved Son?

How have you managed His life that was given for you while you lived on earth, in all its freedom and wealth it provides? For you see, His life was to be your treasure and where you would find truth and the way.

It will be a great & terrible day – for those who have ears – let them hear! Amen.

I AM

I AM

I AM the Way

I Am the Truth

I Am the Life John 14:6

I AM

I AM All and in All Col 1

I AM the Alpha and Omega Rev 22:13

Where I AM you may be also John 12:26

Those who would come after Me they will have Me, and find My Life; Matt 7:7,8. What I say is true; John 3:32-34. For any who will follow after Me I fill and these have My Spirit; John 7:39, John 14:26. It is by My Spirit that any will find My Life; Acts 4:31. My Life is not found in this world; John 18:36, but many who are deceived follow after another whose image they have made – so this god will suit to their tastes – and they serve the god of this world. For as many as I call only a very few follow after Me so they may be chosen Matt 20:16 For I am strict and precise so those who are mine are able to hear My voice. Is a Shepherd easy and generous? No, for this is not how he would be able to keep his sheep safe and in his care, he trains them to listen to his voice and he leads and guides with firm prompts and commands Psalm 23:4. I came to earth, and said many things and what is recorded is somehow explained away. When I say that anyone who comes after Me must hate his mother, brothers and even himself – there are few who take this up Luke 14:26. It is strict. When I say that a man must forgive anyone who has offended them or My Father will not forgive them, this has not been taken seriously by the majority for it is strict and precise Matt 6:15. I tell that in order to find life one must give theirs up, that to follow Me he must first deny himself and take up his cross– words that are strict and precise Matt 16:24-25. To believe in the Son is to follow Him in all that He has spoken – for this is how faith is shown, by your works John 15:10 James 2:14-20. Many have gone astray because they have taken the broad road and call it My grace. Where did I say that any could continue to walk in sin and be My disciple? I have said that if your eye causes you to sin, then pluck it out Matt 5:29! I said that your hand causes you to sin then to cut it off Matt 5:30! This is strict and precise. When I say that all who are weary and heavy laden come to Me for My yoke is easy and My burden is light – this has been taken in error as a way of coming and finding rest from the burden of life. This is only half true. For I place My yoke upon all who would come to Me for rest. My yoke is what I use for all those who are mine to lead and guide them. When any come to Me there is an agreement to be made and that is that they accept My yoke and My burden that they are to carry Matt 11:28-29. This is strict and precise. For those who have followed after this wide road – they forget that I have said that My way will be narrow and it will be difficult Matt 7:13-14. This requires a cost to My followers Luke 14:17-29, for on this road demands continual obedience My teaching 1 John 5:3. My life has been cheapened in the context of this grace (deception) and requires nothing from its followers. They do not accommodate My Spirit within them; instead they expect My Spirit to accommodate them. They have not realized that the god they worship will be who they will imitate and the one they serve is a lover of self and the world.

Those who are mine with each day they live are closer to looking like Me; 2 Corinthians 3:18.

Who do you say that I AM?

The Law of Liberty

Blessed is the one who looks to the law of the Lord, for this one gains up into abundance. In the law of the Lord is the sustenance of life and freedom 2 ingredients that drive away the evil forces that often overthrow man. It is a practice that must be daily mastered for its effectiveness for it is like a live wire – of living activity for it will not manifest in a dormant style of living. This is the very essence of this law, it is the continual moving in one direction and this direction is like no other but is often mimicked. The direction is the way of Christ. You see, you have the way of going left, right, up, down, in or out and so forth, where the direction of Christ is not like that. His way is always narrow in perfection – but remembering He is the perfection. For to think that one must be perfect first – in this thinking they have already lost their way and walk another path. This is how many stray, yet they don't even realize they have strayed, for they accept their experience as coming from the Hand of God. Many books, sermons and articles have been printed – with great acceptance by the masses based on this wrong way. They take the false produce as precious, they deem it so and it becomes what their imagination dictates to them. They do not understand that it is as empty as a cloud that has no rain within it. This type of experience only creates waste and distraction. The enemy is master over keeping souls such as this occupied with what their heart seeks after for he provides generously.

The mark of walking in the way of Christ is one who seeks not his own. To seek not from or for oneself is what it means to deny oneself. Take care to understand that there is a close parallel of 'self-denial' that many religions adopt for this type excludes the work of the Cross. One must be ever diligent to examine motivation upon what it is they do – as they deem it for the Lord. For those who killed Christ Jesus were under this evil influence. Self-seeking can be masked very easily into doing good – yet the root be as evil as murder! Self seeking manifests law, which consists of domination and rule, where denial of oneself manifests grace, which consists of freedom and love. To one who is in close communion with Me – they will easily spot out the two for one exhumes the fragrance of Christ, most pleasing and a delight to be around where the other is an odor that repels. Christ himself does not come to condemn so as there is the spirit of condemnation – Christ is not in this. Many are snared by those who practice in this way, and for their release they must fix to submit to God in all things and to resist the devil in all things and they will see their freedom. Submitting to God involves the throwing off of all else, fixing your eyes upon Him and giving to Him all you are, do and want. As you do this, you wait for Him to direct you. It is only as you obey what He says. In submission you are diligent in searching out His ways, through the reading of scripture, prayer and belief in that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. Submission to Him means that you are not fearing man – for the fear of man is the fuel that keeps one bound. To fear God is to be in the place of submission. Many do not fully understand that when one is under the domination and control of another – they have placed such a one on the throne and it is they who they honour and submit to. They have allowed fear to master them. I am far from this dynamic. They pray to me for help and I see their affliction yet I am limited within this because of whom they choose to serve. I speak to them but it can only be from afar – yet my voice can be heard. For I do not relent and continue to speak to them. But alas, even some such as these are so bound, yet, I have been able to speak truth – for they have inclined their ear to Me and provided to them the way of escape. My mercy is great and I long to bring release to all who are bound and I will never relent. If one were to see how much they are offered by my voice and how they discount, deny and disobey what I speak to them, they would understand that they are bound because of disobedience to Me. They are without excuse for my mercy and grace extend upon them continually for they choose another over Me. To the one who wields domination and control I am in the same way speaking to them continually, but because they are driven by their own appetite for power and control, they cannot hear my words to them. Most times my words are not something they desire – they are repelled by them. This type of soul is one that I have mentioned when I say they are like whitewashed tombs with dead man’s bones inside! For they are expert at looking very good from the naked eye but upon my inspection, death is uncovered – the law of sin and death is rampant within. For they are law makers and make it their aim to bind all who they are in contact with. Where the Spirit of the Lord is – you will find liberty. What is liberty? It is the place that is above all the trappings of this world. The place where I speak and am heard clearly. Liberty is not being attached to anyone or anything. Liberty is being found In Christ, drinking from Him and eating of Him – looking unto Him for your every need. As you are in this place you are in the most broadest, full and abundant place you can ever be – for you are lost in His depths and are safe from all that is in the world to snare you. Liberty is the opposite of control and condemnation. When you live in Liberty you have confidence in your standing and that you are accepted into the beloved. To stand in this is to live in this – this is the power that allows my sons and daughters to overcome. This is what the dyeing world needs to see!

I am the truth the way and the life....to come to the Father, all must come through Me. My way is narrow – but all who go through are given the means to do so. All that is needed is the willingness to put one foot ahead of the other, determining to walk in My way – I will take such a one and begin walking within them in the path that leads to the law of life and liberty – in Christ to the fullness of all that is.

I call to you, sinner!

You who have settled under the smothering blanket of sin. My voice is faint, but I am God and can speak anywhere. I speak now, to you, I wait for your ear to incline to Me. For sin has pressed you in and has trapped you. The sin that you once enjoyed as a good and soothing thing, steals from you now and is killing to destroy you. But My voice will continue to speak to you, tirelessly. For I see what awaits all those who continue in this path – and I do not take pleasure in the fate of the wicked. For realize that you are counted as wicked in My eyes. For you live for the love of sin. Oh, but I am a good person you believe in your heart! Do not be deceived, for there is none that is good in My eyes, not one! There is none who chooses good and to be good! It is only through My Son that any shall escape My wrath – for this, He is the only good. So, here you are, you are under this cloak of wickedness, saying you are a good person – I say, come out! Come out and live! Choose life! Call on the name of My Son Jesus, with a true heart, to believe in Him to save you from sin – and breathe your first breath of true life! And you will realize how you have lived all these years, like a pig in its filthy pen. It will be stench to your nostrils once you choose life, and you will no longer desire to be sin's temple, but will become a dwelling place for Me that will be pure, clean and holy filled with My Spirit. I am God and there is no other, and I will do that which I said I will do and there is not one who I cannot make holy! I will give to you a new heart and you will choose to love Me and hate sin because I will give you a heart that will burn for Me. Do not settle for anything less. For this is the plan that I have for you. It has always been for a future and a hope, so you will be with Me now, in this life and forever. You will be who I have called you to be and will enter my joy.

Careful in Keeping your Oil

Where are all My People? They are for My gathering and are in the midst of this world awaiting Me. They contain the flame I have placed within them that lights their way, keeps them warm and allows Me to see where each one is. There is none that will be lost or forgotten in the day of My gathering. For in this day they will be like magnets to My call and be snapped up in My power to draw them.

Like I have spoken once regarding how important it is to keep your lamps full of oil – so that this flame will never go out, I say it again! I see throughout the world far too many in this dangerous place. They have neglected to labor to keep their supply of oil in their vessels. You see, My Holy Spirit is the oil, and He is the power for the flame of God within each and to too many who believe they need to do nothing in maintaining My Spirit to accommodate My Presence is a lie that has spread and causing many fall by this deception. My Spirit has been deposited into all who believe in Me and My work I have done applies to these who would receive Me. What is forgotten is that I AM – which is to say, I am alive – living and require the accommodation of each soul who would have Me to continue to live. I AM the God of the living, not the dead! For as one continues to live according to their flesh – which is dead, and does not yield to My Spirit they become further and harder each time they ignore Me. My Spirit will continue in ones like so for only a time for I will not be mocked! Though My love can never be separated from those who are mine – My love is something that the finite mind cannot ever understand. This has been the lie that many hold to as they live lives denying My power in how they continue to live – so they may continue in such apostasy! I even love all those who are lost, apart from Me – but does this constitute them to be saved from My wrath? No! My love is not what saves. My love is the reason I made a way for all -so they not perish but have everlasting life – what saves is the blood that was spilt – to those who take it, and drink – for in it is life. You see, I have given man breath, so they may live. If they stop breathing, they do not live, they will die. In the same way, I have given My blood so man will live and not die – but they must continue in my blood to continue to live, this is why I say I am the bread of life and the living water – you must eat and drink – and continue to do so, to live.

My Spirit is a deposit and to those who continue to draw upon Me more I give – and to those who do not draw, what they have will be taken from them. My love has nothing to do with this for I have done all that I can so that none would perish – it is the will of man that makes his choice to turn from what I am, and give. Yes, man has his will for I am not a puppet master and do not force anyone to love or continue to love Me. For though I already know who will go to hell does not mean that I was the one who chooses for each. This is another where man's finite understanding can never grasp. There are many snares that many waste much time in endless debating - and this is one of them.

These words I speak, to many – even the ones to whom need to hear, will not understand them. For to such ones as these I say ask and continue to ask, knock and continue to knock seek and continue to seek – then I will know you want what it is I tell you and will give you understanding in the things of the Spirit. Be careful to all who I have deposited My Spirit – for He is the very power that raises the dead, do not treat Him as though He were less for the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. Cry out for the understanding for the fear of the Lord and you will be careful to walk in participation with My Spirit and live in the power I Am and give.

Trial, Pain & Suffering

Take encouragement from My Hand in your times of great trial. For this is the only way to bring you through. Careful to what you pay heed to, in all who will speak words to you, words born out of sympathy. Sympathy is a counterfeit to what I give and will keep you in the place you despair. Peter attempted to give to Me sympathy when he rebuked My mission. What if I had listened and agreed with him in that God is much too kind to give to me the cup I was to drink? Do you claim to know about the kindness of God? Who can understand it with the human mind bathed in human emotion? My encouragement will sustain you – feed you in the depths you are in and goes far beyond human emotion – and will anchor your soul so you may ride the storm upon you. Your emotion says ‘I want, I need, I must have!’ where I say, ‘give, give up, and give all that you have in you – to Me’ My encouragement says to empty out – so I may fill and you will have my comfort.

Right but Oh so Wrong!

There is a way that seems right – in man’s own eyes. A way that is rooted and grounded in the soil of a prideful heart. The fruit of such is like an orange, yet when you open it up to feast upon its splendor – you are met with its emptiness of any such thing. The hungry soul continues to be hungry. So it is as men who speak and teach the things of God as one being right in their own eyes. Who are the ones that do such things as this? They are the ones who you will find that many embrace and sit under eagerly. They may be known as pastor, teacher or prophet. They may have a following great in numbers and usually do. Why? Because of the itching ears that seeks for them? For it is they that raises such one to fame. Upon what measuring rod is used to seek after their truth? Not the word of God and not His Son. It is the fancy of this world in the love of the flesh. For when the God I AM is present, He moves hearts to break them. He moves in souls to remove the world and the clinging to the dead flesh and its deeds. Where you sit, to listen and learn, are you moved like this? If not, wake up while the day is still called day – and submit to God and flee from such idolatry!

Proverbs 21:2

Every way of a man is right in his own eyes,
But the Lord weighs the hearts.

Are You ready for My coming?

I am fast approaching and see a people (who say they know Me) who are going to and fro with such busyness. They have much to do and even when they don't they are content to have nothing to do! Where in truth, they have a great deal to prepare for and they are not concerned with readying themselves for My arrival. In the time before My coming – they will faint and lose heart because they will have used up all the oil in their lamps. For to live in Christ, in the abiding, is where you will find safety from the evil one. For in this day the evil one is granted the ground that he has not had previous, and will have all the opportunity to do as he pleases. For My arm will lift- but not from those who have Me as their life. For it will be a time where they will need to be deeply rooted and grounded in Me, who I AM, and my Word. Because they will not have these – there will be a great falling away. Instead they are deeply rooted and grounded in the things of the world and their flesh. It has always been my will for those who call on my name be a people who seek Me, spend time in prayer to Me and follow my commands and the separating of themselves from the world – for this is where My Life resides and where I offer growth and strength and power to overcome. Know that I come for a pure and spotless Bride!

To all the little children who were taught Jesus, and now are lost.

I desire to speak to those who were taught about Me in their early years – that they would hear what I say to them. I am the God who does not change and am the same yesterday, today and forever more. You may have met Me and embraced Me and believed Me to be true. But as the years have gone by and now that you have grown you have left the things that you once knew of God and once paid attention to in regards to Me. Some may have been barely a believer of My words. Some took My words and let them enter into their hearts and were eager to learn and believe Me. But now you are far from Me. Even now you do not confess to know Me and you have taken other beliefs that are contrary to what I say. Some say they believe in Me, but in their own way or in a general sense. Some hate even hate Me.

I come to you today and speak these words: It is true who I AM is the God I AM. In scripture I have revealed Myself. I am strict, but I am also full of love, for it is I that has created love. Love has been twisted and the purity of it is no longer allowed to dwell in most places in the world. It would be compared to taking the beauty of a rose and tossing it aside for a fake plastic rose – and calling this flower the true rose. My love is not flat, it is not of this world and has many dimensions. The love of this world is flat, has one dimension and is self serving. My love can only be understood by those who have embraced Me – in faith, and to those I impart this love. This is why those who do not consider Me, hate Me or have not embraced Me cannot understand, and what they do not understand, they reject. Yet, I have imparted in each human being a cell. This cell is one that is like a honing and is a receptor to Me. Even though one is not a believer in the God of Creation – there is this cell that calls to Me. It is a hard saying for understanding, but it is this cell that cries out for Me ‘Abba Father!’ So I challenge all those who have left all they have been taught, learned and once knew in the things of God Almighty – and join in the cry for Me. For I will declare to you this day – if you do, I will enter into your life and you will know that I am God. If you continue to call I will give to you eyes to see what is true. If you still continue to call I will fill you with the desire for the truth – and you will be compelled to call out to Me and I will come into you. I have plans for you that are good and not evil – all along, for they have been already written! My plan is that you turn from the darkness and look into the light and join Me. You see, I desire that you be found, for you are lost – and I am calling out to all My lost ones now. It is time, for the days are getting darker and I do not want you to be lost forever.

Without Excuse – in that Day

Will there be a person who is willing to take one step towards Me? For in that one step I release all heaven upon this one – so they would desire to take the next step to bring them yet closer to Me. With each step one takes toward Me I supply them amply with what they need to take the next and then the next one after that and so forth. For all who draw close to Me, I draw near to them. This is where the soul is battled for, for as I pour out over them so they might take it to in to themselves in what I give, the enemy of their souls uses all his devices to distract and remove them. They may be enticed and follow after his lies and promises but I continue to send invitation out. My voice is continually speaking out to the one who may catch it so they will turn towards Me. Realize that My voice is unlike any other. Do not reason with your carnal understanding – My voice speaks in all things and through all things – it is not confined into mere words. I can speak into every cell of your body, into every atom in creation. I can speak to whatever and whoever I choose. My voice can go into the deepest of the deep, the lowest of low and still be in the heights of heaven. I speak in all situations; crisis, joys, sorrows and pain. I speak relentlessly and to the one who takes the step toward Me, I give more – I give light so they may see the place they are in. Oh, it varies in degrees, for I know each and every one and how I must communicate with them. I never let up. Though they hear Me and move forward and then move back away I continue and do not stop. Every human being is granted My voice – that they may hear it so they will draw close to Me. They either do, or they do not. Some gladly receive Me – to take Hand in the wings of My message, though they do not yet recognize it is Me. They do know it is right and in this I honor their decision by holding them, to bring them farther from the darkness and closer to the light so that they may soon see My Son. I introduce them to My Son – and they receive Him. Life on earth for souls of man is about taking steps – toward their God. It is about one step leading to the next step – for I know every man's heart and I listen for them – and with the glance they give My way I will swoop in to pour over them more – that they would lay hold of it and desire the next step. I draw man to Me in this way, and they draw to Me and will bring them to the door of the Kingdom of My Son where they are introduced to Him so they might receive Him and enter in. I continue, to speak so that they would continue to move toward Me – I never stop for this is the Life I give to them. The enemy of their souls looks to destroy My plans for each one and why each one must continue to move forward in Me. You see, he uses all his devices to distract and deceive all who look to Me and will hear My voice, and accomplishes much – not because he is more powerful and has some sort of strength over My work, but because it is given to him, by the ones he succeeds in. For he knows that if he can get a soul to lift their eyes off of Me, it will be easy for him to deceive them and turn their heart from Me to what he tells them. This is why there is confusion among My people, for they have within their ranks a scattered bunch – that say with their lips they love Me but their hearts are far from Me. Even in this I extend my grace and speak!

The Day coming will reveal to all how much they were sought after by Me and they will see how they discarded My invitation and how they rejected Me. All will be without excuse. Not one soul on earth has been kept from My voice, not one! The wisdom of man, thinks they see the unfairness of God – as they foolishly question Me in My own creation! I laugh at the arrogance of the earthen pot telling the Potter how they know better! They do not know the idle words they speak are held in account on the day they meet Me.

The whole world lies under the sway of the wicked one – yes, they have the propensity to follow him in the lusts of their hearts. But no one can be deaf to Me and My call- it will be heard – but they can be hardened against it – to be repelled by it to hate it. This is the judgement of rejecting the living God – they get what they desire – a black and hardened heart. I am God – and am able to break hearts! Yet, I will not go against what it is they choose for themselves. Believe Me when I say that I desire that none should perish but they have everlasting life. I will not stop – speaking out throughout the world. Looking for a heart that has caught My whisper to them – so I may pour over them more to lead them out – to My Son.

Do not give up praying for the lost, for your prayers are like fuel joining my passion in the rescue of all those who are captive in their own rebellion. My heart loves them and wants them more than all the love in man could ever love – that they may join Me in the Son of My love.

New Life means death to old

I Am the Way, the Truth and the Life – ALL must go through Me if they are to be received by My Father. How do you go through Me? By believing and receiving Me as your Lord and Savior – to believe and receive is to live in faith in who I am and have done. What I have done – I have given new life. In this new life, no longer are there chains to your human flesh, with the Self-man to make any demands that keep you in bondage. No longer is your master the devil. These are no longer your life – they are dead. It is no longer you who lives – but I who lives in you. For where My Spirit is, there is freedom to this soul. My economy is always contrary to what the world and the flesh deal in – you want to be free? Look to where you must die! For in this, My life can enter in – and bring you into your true identity. I do not give and give and give – like many believe! I give, as you die! I give only more and you continue to die! My life is lived in all who are willing to die. It must be so. The power of the early church lived in the truth of this. Today, it is not so and there are many deceived. They hold onto two lives that of out of their flesh and to live also in My name. I do not speak of martyrdom, as many who are deceived make it their life's achievement – this is a doctrine that comes from the enemy of the souls of men, I am the God of the living – not the dead!

I have led the way – I did all that the Father called Me to do and did not consider My own will but only to do that of My Father's will. This is true for all who desire to be Mine and can only be done by denying the Self. Die to live. Live to die. Only then, will you walk in My Spirit and power. It is time to lay down your life, die to yourself, pick up your cross and follow after Me. Leave the world behind you and look ahead into Me and My life I have for you.

Mockery!

Who Am I but the Lord God Almighty, ready to save, ready to destroy. I love, and I hate. I give and I take. The God of peace and destruction. Heaven, eternal life, Hell and eternal death. There are none who can understand Me that they try to answer for Me in the things they cannot comprehend in the human mind! What I build, I can tear down – if I so desire!

I desire that I have a people who desire after Me, as I come to them – that they respond to My touch – to know Me. I come in many ways to a person, to awaken them towards Me. Those who keep their minds stayed upon Me shall walk in My peace. My peace is in the place where they are able to see, hear and know Me. It comes more and more as they submit unto Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. Many who I draw, do not know they are being drawn by Me – but there comes a day where I make Myself manifest to them – so they would declare and believe in Me to be their God.

There is a ploy laid for those who call on My name and place their hope in My Son – to divide the truth. This is why you must love the Lord God with ALL your heart, ALL your mind and ALL your soul – to do otherwise, you are open to deception. ‘Nobody’s perfect’ I hear many say as they continue to live unkempt lives that bare no semblance to Me. I have no pleasure in such as these. I require a commitment in My people – to Me. The commitment manifests in how they live among this evil and perverse generation. I am God, Holy and true – and I demand this! I gave My Son to all who would commit to Me – so they may walk as He walked to keep my commands. Instead, there is a way that seems right that they walk in, and expect the God I AM to line up to how they have proposed to live! I live not in the deeds of dead man’s flesh, I have come to live in the new man by the Spirit of the Living God! I will not be mocked! For my glory and majesty forbids it! Whoever would sow into his flesh, to partake in its pleasures and desires will reap its judgement – this is the true law of sowing and reaping! You will never find any good thing as you dig around in the flesh of man and yet this is what is brought to My table! Yet I have a people who think they be My messengers, My servants – who present the treasures of their own hearts – and call it ‘of God!’ Do you not remember Uzza – who I struck dead because he put forth his own hand to steady my Ark, or Aaron’s sons, Nadab and Abihu – as they used fire of their own in My presence. Or Ananias and Sapphira as they purposed a plan in their heart that conspired against My Spirit – all I struck dead with My own hand. And too, My anger kindles against mockery that has been propagated in My name.

One need only to humble himself, seek Me – repent of their own wickedness and I will bring into each one, the true flame of God. In this flame there contains My fear – to do what is right in My eyes understanding that to do otherwise, is counted as lawless – and wicked in My sight. Do not be deceived Oh people, you have an enemy, who comes as an angel of light, who even speaks of the good news of the kingdom of God and who understands the art of deceiving – even the most wise. Do not think that you cannot be deceived – and make it your diligence to seek My face, in humility of spirit – and I will reveal to you the folly of what is known to many as the truth in the things of God. Seek Me while I may be found!

Last Days Exhortation

In the gathering of My people, as it is written, they will see Jesus as He is, for He is within them – they have in glory to glory been transformed into the image of My Son, so they will be like Him. My Spirit must be yielded to – so I may move in a soul. Yield yourself, more and more to Me. Give to Me places in your heart that you have not given to Me. For in this you expand into My own Image. Do not think that you are complete – in that there is no more work to be done in you – because you stand uncondemned. This is a teaching of man – and comes not from Me and My Word. Press on, move forward toward the prize in Christ Jesus. He is where all the fullness dwells – and to do this there is to be the casting off of the old and dead. Many are the rooms that a soul has that are closed off to My Spirit – and this is not understood in that it is not even acknowledged. I will show the yielded soul for the Spirit leads and guides into all truth, and it is a yielded vessel that understands their frailty and must be shown all things and to take nothing for granted or to presume. For they must be as sheep, who are cared for and led by the Shepherd. It will be this way until they breathe the last breath on earth – that there is always a room – in their hearts, where they need to invite My Spirit to dwell to bring them refreshing and freedom from the bonds of the flesh. My desire is to bring freedom. Freedom as not the world sees – but true freedom. My freedom is one where though you may be bound by man to be imprisoned – you remain free, that you may sing songs of praise to Me as My servants did as it is written. My freedom, you are able to face death that will come to many who name the name of Christ as their Lord – with no fear, and still will be filled with My power to praise My name and look to My glory as joy to look unto! This freedom is what I speak of in that they loved not their own lives even unto death. This is the power that I give – that My people must have in these last days – then they will walk burning in the fire of God giving Me glory and Honor – testifying Jesus Christ overcoming by the Blood of the Lamb.

The Hole In Your Heart

I see the hole in your heart. It drains out everything that has been poured into it. You can be given purest of love only for it to drain away or financial stability, homes, travel, riches, accomplishments all and everything that there is – and yet you gain no lasting satisfaction. This is why there is a sadness, for you have been robbed through this hole. You have been on a quest for quite some time now to remedy this perpetual thirst you have that will never really be quenched. You acquired this when you were young and now as you grow older it grows within to dominate you. You plan your life around this hole, making your decisions and choices that will suit it. You have become a slave to the hole in your heart in the seeking out what will bring you escape, soothing and satisfaction even if but for a moment or two only to repeat with a deeper sense of need and into hopelessness.

I have come so I might fill this hole in you, you need only to believe in Me and take My hand. For as you do, I will lead you from your misery into the life that I have prepared just for you from the beginning of time. My plans for you have always been to give you a bright future in Me that is filled with promise and hope of good things that will prosper you in wholeness of heart. You see, the hole in your heart would be the place where I will meet you, at your invitation that I may enter in you- in your heart. I would breath into you new life that will heal and you would no longer need all your fixes and props you have established and are enslaved to now. For I say to you that where my Spirit is, there is always freedom. I have already taken care of the hole in your heart through My blood that I shed for you, all you need to do is to take what it is I give- in faith that I Am who I say that I Am. I will shine My light upon your soul and we will walk together into your freedom for in your weakness, I am your strength. I will give you the power to lay aside all that takes from your life today – take My Hand and begin to walk with Me. Take one step and even two and I will show you in My light how to live the life I died to give to you – one that is the promise of wholeness where you will be filled with My love, My power and My peace.

Inexhaustible Riches

Who among you would lay down your own life? To this one would only live to gain. For it is only this kind of soul that would turn their back from their own self, will they receive the riches from heaven out of My treasures. Oh, but do not be deceived, my riches that I bestow have no value in the earthly kingdoms. My wealth is not sought after by the natural man like in the stock markets that many gain from. Nor in the successes of good business, and entrepreneurship. My wealth, My prosperity, My success – must be found and utilized in My Kingdom. This is where those who are mine are to conduct their business. My economy is untouched by any one and is eternal. Those who utilize My trade, are ones who count it all joy when they used and abused by others for My namesake for as they do, they are strengthened in My Spirit and are filled with My joy and love in the midst of this world's madness. I only give more to those who would desire this. For in truth, My people will face hardship, tribulation and opposition, but will endure and will glorify My Name as they live – not loving their own lives, but unto their love for Me. For I fill them with such love. You see, I give and will continue to give to all who would make it their daily practice to lay down their own lives, which is the desire to please and walk in their own wills. It must be in this way, for I do not share in the one who wishes to live for their own desires to fulfill the needs of their flesh. Though one gives only a sliver to Me, I will be faithful to My word. I am fluid, I am not idle – so those who shall look to Me, even if it is little by little. Give to Me, look for what must be renounced, removed and repented of – everyday, for I will surely show you. For understand that this is for your own health and safety for it is never acceptable to harbour what I detest and died for! My desire has always been to consume all who would have Me, let this be your desire in that you would yield to Me as your life practice. Give to Me, your willingness, give to Me the dark rooms in your soul and you will gain My riches, My fullness, and will lack for nothing! Humble yourself before your God, cry out to be filled with only more in the posture of no longer living for Self. For as you give to Me your Self, I will give to you, good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over – which is your gain. For with the same measure that you give to Me I give back to you! For it is only to your advantage to give all you can, for truly you will only increase and prosper in My name. As I have given My life, so you too must give your life, and you will live the Life I have provided for all who trust Me as Lord and Savior.

The Deceived

There are many who walk about thinking they are following after Me. They speak My name, pray in My name and they say they love Me but what decides this to be true in that I truly am Lord of their life? Those who are true followers of Me do not think of their own life at all, they look to the Son of My love – to His life. These ones will seek Me in ALL that they do for they understand that there is no other option that I must have all of them -for them to rightly follow after Me. It is a walk where in this world they will be in continual battle with their greatest enemy – and that is Self which is rooted in the flesh, where the devil has power, and has no part in the Spirit, where I Am found. In this great battle that they have daily they are continually aware and give to Me all that they can so they may take and receive Me; to take Me, they must let go of Self. Those who are mine follow after the pattern of emptying to be filled. Yet, there are those who attempt to get to Me through and by other means, and that is to continue to live as they wish adding to the Self which always quenches the Spirit. They do not follow after the conviction that my Spirit gives, but instead by their feelings and own understanding. They are ones who do not trust in the scriptures as being fully true to be their guide and revelation of My heart. Instead the scriptures are used by them, like a product and not received as the well spring of life. Where in truth, scripture is food I give for the growth, edification and insight of life in the Spirit of the living God. These ones are like users, they have a motive that is selfish, for they will come to Me once in a while and almost never when things are going well and will cling to Me when they experience hard times and will look to Me to fix their problems. What they need to do is give to Me themselves so I may deliver them from what binds them and this involves giving up and surrender. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. Nay, in the hard times they face they do not ask Me to do with them as I please so that I would accomplish My perfect will. Instead they enlist others to pray for their victory or that they would overcome the particular difficulty as if the problem is the problem. They are acting out of self and do not have the understanding that it is I that has caused or allowed the problem in the first place so that I might get their attention then their devotion. It is for their own good, but because they look at it through the eyes of their own understanding they miss the opportunity I have presented to them – so they may enter My rest. Like those in the wilderness who were not able to enter because their hearts were still in Egypt so too are these who do not seek to go on, into the Promised Land that My Son has bought for them.

As the Lord gives me these words I usually have extra writing that compliments them that is found on my other blog Way Truth & Life. Here is a post that corresponds and relates to this particular word. When lies become our truth

Pray!

I will fill mouths that are hungry for Me. I will make Myself known to the ear and eye that desires to hear and follow Me. I will also do this with those who do not look for Me, do not desire Me – for am I not the Lord God Almighty? I make rivers in the desert lands and roadways in wilderness places, nothing is too hard for Me! For this reason, I will tell you this; pray. Pray for the lost. Your prayers are not the nothings you think, they are not unheard – but instead, as you pray, and continue to pray – and do not waver, they become heavy in My Kingdom and accomplish much. So I say, pray My children! And pray some more! For My ears never tire from those who would make this their daily sacrifice! Most do not fully realize that prayer is a great work here on earth, that they have access to the Living God with supplications to Me- whose arm is not shortened that it cannot save, nor is My ear heavy that it cannot hear! I count each prayer you make and save it, for in My kingdom your prayers are a treasure that increases and is stored. So I say, ask Me, continue to ask! Pray for your neighbors, your neighborhood! Pray for your friends, and your enemies! Pray for one another! Pray without ceasing. Don't just watch the news, or read it, use it to show you what to pray for! When you are standing in line, at the doctor's office, stuck in traffic, look around you – pray for those who you see! For as you grow in prayer, I will guide you, to show you who specifically needs prayer and what it is to pray for! As you go for your walk, or run, pray for all who you pass by! When you feel angry at someone, make it your task to instead – pray for them! For you do not realize the impact this has, in you, and in them. I look for those who have the heart to pray, and I will bless all who take this as their mission – and you will grow in the Spirit and be a mighty warrior for My kingdom. Do not take this lightly, for prayer is a vehicle in which accomplishes My will to extinguish evil – begin this day to pray as you have never prayed before.

Weighed in the Balance and found Wanting

The warning and the cry of the Lord goes out and there are only but a few to pay heed. The rest are found elsewhere and not about doing the Lord's business. They will be the ones where the day of the Lord is like a thief, for they do not pay attention to all the warnings I give, nor to My rebukes. Instead, they live to gratify their flesh and love the world, their hearts are far from Me - though they think they follow Me. It is just as I have said long ago. For My voice stirs the hearts of those who will hear, and who are mine. For My sheep will and do hear My voice. My Spirit resides in ones who will have Me. But for those who wander after the lure of Satan, My Spirit is like a faint vapor to them. For however much you give you receive. As you give Me place, I will consume and reside and grow (you) in strength and power – this is how you become an overcomer. It is just as in the parable of the talents. What I give (the deposit of My Spirit) I expect a return. But the many have hid and shoved My Spirit in a hole and lived life without even giving Me any serious thought let alone commitment. They do not take My yoke to learn Me, nor do they know Me, and so, I do not know them for how could I when they tucked Me away to not interact with Me? How could they know Me – How could I know them in such a way? For My Spirit is a great treasure and has the worth of great power – to heal and deliver and increase a life to become My image bearers. So the many who do not take My Spirit as the treasure it is – and have dug a hole in the ground and hidden it – they will be met with shock as they will see what they have done. Is this the kind of people who I come for in My Bride? Not so, for they did not make themselves ready. They did not buy gold that I look for, by going through the fire to burn off the flesh so to increase in Spirit. They did not desire to see and apply My eye salve that I give for they were not willing to pay the price, and that is to deny themselves. They do not weigh in but are found wanting. They are empty and this is why they do not hear the voice of the Lord at this time. They do not sense the urgency of the day and hour – because in the deception they have followed, there is no need to be urgent or to ready themselves, for the teaching they take hold of tells them they are perfect and forgiven and accepted in My sight! Woe to these, woe to them – for they have not even dared consult with Me, for I would have told them and they would have taken heed to My rebuke and warning.

Repent or Perish!

I have indeed called for the world's repentance. That all might find life and not perish. Yet it is true that only a few will take My offer. To repent is to turn away from sin. Look at the compass it will always point to the north, in same, I am like the North that those who are mine will be pointed to which is opposite of where sin is. It is like when you put two magnets together they will deflect one another, they can never be compatible. This is the same with the relationship I have with sin. I am repulsed by it. I do not dwell where sin abounds, I judge. I am life, sin is death. My people who are called by My name – are a people who gladly repent. They do so in the humbleness of heart realizing that they must! I do not enter in to any who would not repent from sin. I grant to all the gift of Salvation and those who receive this gift turn from their sin, to enter in to My life, My door. Oh yes, as long as you carry around your body of flesh, you will always battle your greatest enemy – your flesh. It will rise up within you daily to demand its lusts and desires. But I say, 'crucify it! Deny its demands!' and take up My cross and follow after Me. For I will put My yoke upon your shoulders and you will be able to bear the hard and difficult road that lies ahead. For make no mistake, those who are mine, walk a hard road. With each step, they will increase in Me and be made into My image. They are a people who do not live to find pleasure in sin but have made a life of repentance – which is to ever turn away from sin to turn to Me. They trust in My power to overcome in their temptation as they move away from sin's pull to face Me. Repentance is what I require of all who are Mine, make no mistake – for there is no other way. True, the payment has been made for the power of sin and its judgement and is free for all who would lay hold of it, but this is not license to continue in the very thing that cost My Son His life! His blood covers your sin, but who shall come to My throne to plead for His blood to cover their sin that they boldly continue in? Am I not the same today, yesterday and forever? I hate sin, and My judgement remains upon it – today. Do not be deceived to think that you may claim forgiveness for sin while you continue to live in it! No! My power is for those who would walk worthy of repentance. My love covers a multitude of sins – but do not play with My love. For I love, but I also hate. I hate sin. Do not think that you may continue in sin to be covered in the Son of My love. Repent. For it is your only escape from the judgement that you place upon your own head. Lovers of God will be a people who grow, they will grow in their love for God, and they will grow in their hatred towards sin and will be a people who understand the word and meaning of repentance.

Narrow Way

Narrow is the way and few desire to find and walk in this path which is My path. This path is where you walk in what I call you to. It often is a lonely road and where you are separated from even the ones who also walk this road. In this path you are guaranteed My arm of protection according to My will for you. It is where you are closest to hearing My voice. This narrow way, is one where I bless those who choose it. Many mistake that this narrow way is a onetime choice, where they have expressed their love and acceptance of Jesus to make Him Lord, this is true, but not complete in that it is a moment by moment path where to forge ahead is to walk in the obedience I call for, where there is no excuse made for compromise.

Those who walk upon the wide way and say they follow Me are deceived and walk in dangerous territory, for My hand of protection is not there. Though My sovereign will still stands where I will intervene on occasion this is often mistaken as being My blessing (and sign that they are in My will) which is in error. They do not realize that the enemy of their soul walks very effectively as an angel of light, and can and does give 'good gifts' to those who worship him. They do not realize that when they are not worshiping Me, they are worshiping him. You cannot serve two masters, you will either love one and hate the other. Far too many believe that because they have wealth and riches they have My hand of approval upon them – this too is deception. And for some they will have a 'peace' that they take as being of Me, but if they were to look a little closer it is not what I give. This peace they have is the dullness of heart that cannot discern correctly. For the peace I give is much more than complacency it is what I give to those who rest completely in Me in surrender.

I do not need the wealth of this world to carry out my tasks. In fact, I look for those who will work with Me to prove this ignorant and contrary. I am the Lord God Almighty, I do anything I wish, and with what I choose to use. Remember this and look for Me, not to the means when you are in need. For your need is Me and no other

The Problems You Face

Take a look at the problems of My servant David, had he handled them in of themselves, he would have had an entirely different outcome and not become King. He did not allow them to be his focus, I was His focus. You see, the human mind wants to look at the here and now with logic and intellect, but there is much more to what the eye sees and what the body feels. It has been written that the war to be fought is not against flesh and blood, but is of the spiritual in dominions and principalities in heavenly places. And it is only I who can properly assess and navigate My sheep through their troubles to safety. Oh that My people would realize that the problem, the trouble, the hardship or torment- is NOT what needs to be fixed! In this world you will always have tribulation, as I have spoken – but it is only I who has overcome them. No human being can ever successfully overcome truly, unless they allow ME to overcome in them. This is the mystery of the resurrected life in Jesus Christ and what is called the sanctification process. I have reconciled all sin – and it is the focus for My people to be reconciled through this process. I have made the way, now it is up to each to walk through the way I have made. Each problem one faces, I give invitation to embark with Me, so that it is My purpose and plan that will come to fruition. And it is in here that you will find your deliverance you so need. This journey is not for the faint at heart, for it will require from each who will journey with Me. For often, the problem is a problem upon problems – that have not been addressed according to My way and so, there is much work that needs to be done, and undone. So, I say, bring to Me your problem, your troubles your torment – but do not take them up again to be your subject, focus or prayer to pray. Instead, look unto Me with all your heart, and make yourself ready so that you will hear Me speak to you. The surest way to hear My words is to make it your aim to turn from evil, from dark, from sin. Let your business be this, to join Me in creating a clean heart within you, so that you may see, and hear Me. Ask me where there is darkness, where you have not followed Me. Read scripture with eyes that will search for Me, and what it is I ask of you. Pray prayers that will ask for Me to reveal the truth of the matter. Learn to be humble before Me – and it is in this posture that you will hear Me, and I will teach you what it is you need to learn so you may grow in the vessel that I have created you to be – for honor. Do not let the problem become your subject or your aim in that you are looking for Me to solve or to give you relief from. Instead ask Me for My answer. In this you are releasing its hold that it has had upon you – in that even though in the past, you may have seemingly outwardly solved such problems, it will only be a matter of time before another similar problem will come upon you. For there are familiar spirits assigned to you – and will only come back again, to torment and antagonize you – usually in greater degree. It is complex – the kingdom in which your battle is and in the way it must be fought and handled – and I encourage all who are called by My name to humble themselves, seek My face with hearts of repentance - because this problem has become your idolatrous focus. Repentance is the starting point to where you must begin. Humble and contrite hearts before Me I will not refuse but will gladly come alongside to walk you through and out of what has overtaken you. For many walk sorrowfully, and with much weight upon them in the problems they face and are plagued with, and call for the prayers of others. For too many, will pray as if the problem where the problem, but it is only an outcome of something that lies hidden. It is only the ones who can hear Me to tune in to Me, who will pray effective and fervent prayers that will avail much, but they are few. Where I say, do not look to the earth below and all its materials for your solution, but look to where I Am, seated in the heavenly Kingdom above all principalities and dominions, where the answer lies to all your problems.

So, today, take your issue – lay it down to not take it up again as you have always done. Repent of it. When it seeks out upon you to encumber you again, turn from it – and its power it once had, and look to Me as the power you give over to. Meditate upon who I am, in light of this issue, this torment, this problem that plagues you. Desire to know Me IN this problem. Give no longer glory to your issues, give glory to Me. Seek Me with all your heart mind and soul. Commit all your ways to Me. Then, I will show you what has led you into the place you have found yourself. And I will surely show you the way out. Be prepared to forgive, for this is the key that will unlock you from the snare you find yourself in. One step at a time, and I will show you out of the cycle you have been bound to – as you commit to Me – everything.

My Brave Ones

Who are the brave ones? They are those who are willing to die for Me. No, I do not speak of physical death – as for far too many, they follow after a lie that says they must die for their god, to enter into their reward. For in truth, you cannot die physically for Me, like so many who have done in My name – until you are able to die to yourself first. In fact, unless you die to yourself, you cannot truly live – in Me to serve Me and enter into My Kingdom. For as you do, your life is no longer your concern. The cares you have had are no longer what you continue to have. I say cut off that part of yourself that causes you to sin – and I say this without mercy! For I see that if you do not it will carry you to hell! Do you not see that to live in this world you cannot be of it? Do you live to be rich? Successful? Famous? Physically Fit and beautiful? Do you love Me enough to desire to be blind – and lose your eyesight – if your eyes were the cause of sin that would lead you to hell? Are you willing to give up all your treasures, collections and possessions if I ask them of you? Would you lay down your career to take up a new job at McDonald's if I called you to this? For truly, those who would offer themselves up to Me in this way, they are those who are brave and will lay down their lives so they may live for Me and what I ask of them. I say that those who are cowardly are counted with the ungodly and murderers. For we are in the days where too many do not even understand the truth and command to deny themselves and take up their cross and follow Me. If this is you, you MUST learn what this means if you are to be counted as Mine. Play no longer the game called church. Go before Me and repent of this and begin now to deny yourself. If you are so hard and blind and do not know what this means – go before Me with a sincere heart to ask Me what this means and I will take your hand and I will reveal to you this hard, but powerful truth. Time to turn from how the coward lives before Me, to become one of My brave ones – for time is drawing to a close.

Get Your Affairs In Order!

The deception deepens among the majority of those who profess to be followers of mine. I am sounding alarm among you today – pay attention! Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall and examine yourself to see if you truly be in the faith – of the Lord Jesus Christ. For who goes on a long journey and does not first make sure they have the finances, and proper papers and directions? Or who does not consider what they must pack or prepare for before they set out? I tell you that there are more who spend the time and take the care for their earthly journeys than they do in the most important journey they will ever take, into eternity. Just as it would be preposterous for one to say they are able to travel abroad and will do so, yet they have not made any preparations nor have the means to do so as it is for any who say they are believers in the faith, yet have nothing to prove this. If I asked you, are you born again, what would you say? If I asked you are you saved from the wrath of God from your sin, what would you say? The reality is the majority of answers would be ‘I don’t know.’ If this is your answer it is you I am talking to. I am calling out now, to warn you – get your affairs in order for today is the day of Salvation. Take lightly no longer the journey you have been created for to insure your name be written in the Lambs book of Life

Strong Delusion

Preface: As I was meditating upon the flurry of what is coming in - as warnings and words and I was asking the Lord regarding these to which I write what I heard Him tell me.

It is true in what you have said. For in these last days have not many risen up to say 'here is Christ, there is Christ?' For what they say, they say is from Christ. They state that Christ is here, speaking to them. There has been created a frenzied stir and is not of My desire or doing. It collects hungry souls, who take to this type to be their spiritual food. For it is of a spiritual nature- not of mine, nevertheless it is spiritual and dangerous. For this is the sifting that is to take place that judges those who are not sincere in Me. For the sincere will recognize and not be taken away by this wave I have allowed. For this is part of the strong delusion that has arisen that has now come. My Words that I give, cause those who have ears to hear to draw close to Me. To make their walk sure footed. This is the fruit of true prophesy. The words that are spoken forth of false in nature are not so. They are like a fleeting flash of nonsense that are laced with truth that is also intermingled with lies. Those who would lay hold of such will not sustain to draw close to Me, because it is out of a wrong motive, heart and spirit that it has been brought forth as well as from their own hearts to receive and embrace it and they soon look for another word that they may feed off of. My words are not meant to be fed off of, but to create an action - that moves souls closer, toward Me.

Sensationalism is what is sweeping the lands on many levels. Leaders, groups, lands – are being sensationalized in My name. Never has this been so great as in these last days. For the spirit that sends it – goes forth to enter into hearts who would receive it, to deceive and deceive some more! The day now is where I separate those who desire Me and seek Me with those who follow after their own hearts and tickling ears. Do not be deceived to think that the enemy is not clever enough to bring this about – even among those who think they are strong in My spirit! I call all, to cling to Me, seek Me in all they do, think, say and believe – for you are in the place where that of great and powerful deceitful spirits are seeking to claim all that they can to fulfill what I have said long ago. Look not to another, but Me. Look to no other but what it is I came to do. Look to no other but to believe on My name, for I give perfect peace to all whose eye is upon Me and to the one who puts his trust in Me. Dig deep into My mysteries of the Kingdom of God, look for My treasures I give, and seek to remain in My abode – this is what I say to prophesy!

Come Out!

Come out from among them My people!

Be not deceived any longer – remove yourself from this land! For this land is detestable in My sight and My indignation burns against it to destroy it!

This place you hold so dear, so close to your heart is your snare and holds a noose around your neck. Yet no one holds you to remain for you can walk out and away at any time you choose to do so.

I do not dwell in this place, with you. You must come out and then I will abide with You. Be deceived no longer – leave the calling of your flesh in living to its satisfaction. Realize you have been a prisoner to your flesh and I have given you release from this tyranny. For is not the death that I took upon Myself, what has granted all release from the bonds of sin, My own blood to forgive you of the curse that lies with sin? Do not think that the work I have done as some magical wand for you – so you may continue to partake in this sinful domain! This is a great and grave error and a doctrine of demons that many sit under as they continue to fill up their flesh with many sins. I came to all who would find life in Me – who would believe Me in what I have done and to those would walk in faith in Me. No one can walk in the world, to freely partake in it and adopt its traditions philosophy and wicked ways, shows faith in Me, who I am and come to do. For I have broken the power of sin and death over all who take Me as their own for they will live no longer to follow after lusts but will subject themselves to Me! Seek no longer after pleasure, seek no longer to be entertained or gratified. For this is a sign you still live in according to your dead flesh. But I say, come out and live according to My Spirit where I will give you all My good pleasure which compares not with anything this world offers. Throw down that body of flesh and lift your eyes upon Me. For the land that is rooted in this world is full of danger and takes many down who once believed. They foolishly thought they could live righteously while they partook also in the world to enjoy its delicacies. Oh be not foolish like them - any longer! Come out of her My People! Come out of this den where demons and every foul spirit and the unclean dwell – be not deceived for as you continue you too will also share in her sins to receive her due.

My Church is not a building!

You do well to dwell in My House, for this is where it is you will find safety. Though I take you through the valley of the shadow of death, you shall fear no evil for I am with you. Let this sink into your hearts and minds, for this is where the power lies, to live according to My ways. The fear of nothing and no one, save the fear of the Lord God Almighty. To fear being away from My presence, to fear to have My wrath set upon you – these are the things to fear! Where is My house? Oh many say it is in a building that has a steeple and cross adorning its exterior, or where those who gather in My name – but I say, this is not my house! My house – for it is not a place, but a being and is that of those who are called by My name, and have the indwelling of My Spirit. I enter in, and we become ‘My House’ – My house is not limited to a building but is the habitation of My Son – which is the chief cornerstone of My House, and all who are mine, are the living stones to make up My House. There is far too much honor and reverence given to buildings and sects – that gather together who say they are ‘in God’s House’ – they do not know this is in error, because they only follow after man’s words, and tradition. I am building My house, and the gates of hell will not prevail against it! Realize that I, the Lord, am against MANY so called houses, for I wish to spew them out of My mouth because they have chosen to mix with the world and have become lukewarm and distasteful to Me. They boast of being My house, and they do not know how I am set against them! For they serve not Me, and they get not from Me but from the god of this age, he gives to them and is their god. I see each one of My living stones, and take great pleasure in their value, for they give My Son His honour due His name as they humble themselves before Me. They seek after Him with all their heart, though they stumble and fall, I am there to pick them up and show them the way – and they hear Me to get up and follow after Me. Do not be deceived in these days to seek out a building as if this is what I have asked, do not do this. Enter in these buildings with the understanding that they are not My house – and instead, search for My house in one another, for truly there are not many – in these buildings, but a few. For I am calling My living stones out to assemble in My Name as they hear My Spirit lead. For I have never been a part of owning buildings, I have never been a part of walls that are called denominations. It is truly a marvel at how many do not see this. But, the evil one has blinded the eyes of many. I did not ever say that I would have one man be a leader as they have placed in these places! I have never said they become a business that needs to be promoted and marketed to gain finance! For I feed thousands with little, I need not the money that is so very dependant in these – do you not know My ways are not and never man’s ways! Desire that you see this and I will unblock your blind eyes and hard hearts! My Bride looks nothing like what man has set up in what you call these churches! I want nothing to do with this, come out My people, for they are filled with all kinds of evil. Ask Me, and I will reveal to you what has been suppressed – to those who have hearts that are true to Me and want to know. Release your grip from this powerful bondage that is upon you, by acknowledging it – and your participation in it, and in this, I will grant to you more light to see. For this is the devil’s playground, and he has power to deceive with all matter of lying signs and wonders. Do not be deceived any longer, and come out. Come Out!

The Reality of the Spiritual Forces of Darkness

Dream; The Black Cloud

I was on this very large ship, it was white and the type that fighter jets land on in war, and in the distance I saw a very dark cloud rising. I knew that this was just not a cloud. As I watched this cloud it formed into a very deep black funnel – I have never seen such a black cloud in real life or even in photos– as this one was literally jet black, and I knew immediately that it was the manifestation of evil. It began to swirl and kick up and it came towards me. I had with me two loved ones. Out of the black cloud a man appeared and approached me of great power. He was pleasant in appearance – but I knew him to be dangerous and very menacing. He came right to me, and circled around me like he was looking for something. I understood that he was seeing how he could enter me/ my life so he could overtake me – and he saw that he could not so he looked at my loved ones. I immediately placed my right hand around one and my left hand around another and declared to him ‘ I take authority over these – in the mighty name of Jesus, you cannot touch them!’ and with that he knew he could not so off he returned into this cloud. And the cloud approached us with fury, we were literally in the middle of its destructive path – but we were untouched.

Interpretation

I saw how important it is to make sure we walk in Christ with our armor on and in use. That to be vigilant to live clean and blameless lives, quick to confess our sin and repent – so the enemy does not have any place for entry into our lives. Because the enemy did not see a place of entry in me, he went for those who I love. This affirms that we MUST pray for our loved ones – CONTINUALLY! To lift them up before God asking that His grace and mercy be upon them to protect them – and that the sin they are in, their unbelief would be used for God’s purpose, and that the enemy would not have his way with them that they be kept under His protective Hand.

Dream: There is sound in silence

I all of a sudden could hear the most foul, evil, satanic, murderous, terrifying, overpowering and deceiving voices – they were overbearing, so very repulsive and they shook me to the core. I was in a house and went to the window so I could jump out to escape them, then I realized they were outside too – I had no way to escape for they were everywhere!

Interpretation:

The voices are of the satanic force in our world – heard only in the spiritual realm as I heard them. These voices speak constantly they leave no space, for all is filled with their voice. They are like a satanic wind that is continually blowing to snare and catch and influence all who have no guard to protect them. The force they contain enters into the very smallest of cracks that we leave open. The souls who have nothing to do with Jesus Christ are like what I felt – helpless and hopeless. And still, those who have Jesus, are still at risk if they do not guard their souls as we are instructed to. We have the armor of God given to us – as Paul instructs us with each piece we are to have and apply. Ephes 6:10-18

We as believers truly must take serious that there is a devour-er out there whose aim is to kill, steal and destroy! For far too many of us, we are complacent of this and plain lazy to our own ruin. We would much rather muffle the voices with things, doings and substances.

Vision; Praise is Power

I could visually see and feel the pain, chaos, fear, gloom, dread and anxieties whirl all around me. The amount of distress and darkness was unbearable because there was the feeling that there was no recovery or escape from it as it quickly consumed and overwhelmed. I knew that I was experiencing what we as individuals feel and go through and as a whole of society and how the terrible weight held each captive. I was able to see visibly depression, heartache, fear, loss, worry, dread, terror and everything else that was dark and evil. I could see the force and the ownership it held upon the world. My heart was pleading to God for his answer, his help.....

He turned my attention to a small box that lay strewn on the ground. It was opened a crack and I could see the power, the purity of life, truth and light flow outward from it as a living energy. As I looked upon the box I immediately understand that it contained healing, love, blessing, protection, joy, goodness, kindness, beauty, restoration, wisdom, knowledge, peace as it contained all resources to overcome. It vibrated crazily as if it were waiting for it to be tapped into so it could be unleashed.

It does not makes sense in explaining it with mere words but what I witnessed revealed to me that the force and darkness that was being experienced was not real, but as like a shadow – in comparison to what lie within that box. Although the heaviness of what I felt was a reality – it was not THE REALITY.

In the instant upon looking at the beautiful box I knew what was needed to access it; the answer to combat the dark atmosphere I was experiencing. It was so very simple; to Praise God in all things, yet it was not about simple lip service but rather an attitude. To ever look to our God and give attention to who He is by continually recognizing that it is He that is greater, He is what matters in and among what we may be experiencing. The point that I got in seeing what I saw was that it is ONLY when we give our eyes and attention – our focus to God will we ever have a chance to move through life's challenges. There is the tendency to thank God for the things and circumstances in our life – but this is not where the power of His love is. For too many times this can become a self-orientated thankfulness because it is about us. It would be like: ' Lord, you are so very great, full of love and are all that matters to me', rather than, 'Thank you Lord for my house, my kids and that I have my health'. The difference is clear.

In this posture of living we are in the position to hear from God as He leads us through.

All the powers of this world are under the sway of the wicked one; and has the ability to fool and deceive us – to divert our eyes and hearts away from the Source of all life. The world is a cesspool of the work of this artist's (Satan) craft; where many have been victimized. The truth of the matter is that it is all an illusion, of what is real – in essence to what REALLY matters. The power to overcome is to be ever present with what really is; or better said: WHO really is. The box contained the answer to be free of the chaos that these shadows bring – which is the power of praise to our God. It is the practice and discipline to ever tell Him that He is worthy of our attention by giving Him praise for who He is.

You are bigger dear Lord! You are the greatness of this situation! Your presence is only what I want! You are complete and utter beauty! You are healing and wholeness! You are Love! How spectacular are you for you are the creator of all! Your mind is unfathomable it is so great! How lovely are you. You are my joy! You are my healing! You are all I need! I am satisfied with only You! You are complete! You are bigger than anything my eyes may see! You are the answer to everything! I am blessed because you are my God! You are my reason! You are the only truth! Your name is full and great! Praise to you now and forever! Amen!

The Darkest Of Hearts- I AM Able to Penetrate; PRAY!

Today, there is a fight battling in the heavenly realm for the souls of men, unlike any other. Each day, I call out; 'Choose this Day whom you will serve!' Be certain, I am sending forth My voice into every crack and crevice upon this earth. For I desire that none should perish, no, not one! I see all, made but of dust, who know not what it is they do! My call goes out like a heat seeking missile, and will find every heart who even has a hint of interest in God. They may not even have been told of the Messiah – they need only to have thoughts toward the God of Creation. You see, I know all hearts, all thoughts all motives behind the man. I am compassionate and long suffering and My love is uncomprehend-able to the human mind. I see what each human being is face with – the spiritual force in which they are under. Yet, I can penetrate even the greatest of lie, and the darkest of pit – if this one has a thought towards Me. This is why I say to my Saints – pray – always, in all things and for all people! Pray for hearts to be stirred and prepared and to cry out for a God they do not yet know. So the soil in their hearts will be tilled and able to accept the seed I bring and sow into them. The enemy has deceived My people so they do not realize the power of their prayers, in that many if not most do not make prayer a priority in their own days! Oh my People, come before Me and seek My face – every day! Ask Me to show you where you must confess before Me sin, and receive the cleansing power of My Son's blood to wash you! Come before Me and ask for the world! Ask, and continue to ask for peoples souls! For this is a work that is not being done! Too many think they must go out – and do this and do that, but I say, the greatest work is the commitment to pray – always, in interceding for all those who do not yet know. Do not believe the lie that I have already counted who I will have with Me for eternity! I have said; Ask and keep on asking, and do not give up! Seek to pray with the Holy Spirit – for this is power in the Kingdom of God. This is how you will endure, and keep in the shadow of My wings. I have said that the greatest commandment is to love Me with all your heart, all your mind and all your strength – and to love your neighbour as yourself. See, is not a continual prayer to Me your love being manifest – for Me, your heavenly Father and also that of your neighbour? I exhort you today to pray like you have never prayed before....for there are lives depending upon it! And you will see your reward in that great Day and I will say; well done My faithful servant – and enter into My Joy!

The Harlot Church

Preface:

I had two dreams that depicted the church – that has motivated the writing of this; I was petitioning God to show me what the church looked like today. Without getting into detail the just of it was one was like out of the Truman Show - and that life that was lived was fake and a sham. It was like there was a template, or filter like thing placed over – to prevent us to see the reality of Life. Then the other one was full of sexual perversion (I questioned God – about this dream because it was so offensive) but it was only revealing what was true though extremely vile. It depicted the relations between one another, within the church system – and was abhorrent in God’s sight. In short, it was the revealing of how the church system seeks to please one another rather than God.

In another time previous, I had asked God to show me the Body of Christ – and this is how I believe He answered. He gave me a glimpse of this magnificent live organism and it took my breath away: His Body.

Description

She is the system, called church. She is full of dead man’s bones a brood of vipers. Self is what is nurtured and catered to, in the name of Jesus where allegiance is for the leader, denomination or ‘creed.’ The Old man still lives in this church. All kinds of (spiritual) adultery is practiced and revelled in. (Spiritual) incest, homosexuality and perversion of all kinds are freely committed and encouraged and condoned. The fruit that this church bares resembles what the world produces; divorce, depression, anxiety, porn addiction, gender confusion, hatred, rivalry, unforgiveness, jealousy, lusts of all kind, lovers of entertainment and pleasure, boasters and slanderers – is to name a few. God stirs with burning anger towards this church for it is putrid to His nostrils and His patience is coming to a close. He calls and warns continually, ‘Come out of her My people!’

Christ is His Beloved Son and the Head of the true Church that is without spot or wrinkle – for they are found In Him. This (true) Church is not harnessed in a system, to be controlled by man, or financed by money and ran like a business. For His Church is not like the world and it moves lives and has its being by His Spirit who leads in power and teaches all its members. They can hear His voice and are obedient to all that He says. This Church does not seek riches but looks for treasures found in Christ. They walk separate from the world and seek to maintain this separation. They live to not love their own lives, to seek to gratify their flesh, they lay down their lives daily so they may live His.

“Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues. ⁵ For her sins [\[b\]](#)have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities. Rev 18:4-5.

What Have You Done With My Son?

I have given You my Son, My most Beloved Son, My only Son. I sent Him to you, that He be born and live among you that He become the offering that is needed and acceptable in My sight to pay the price for sins you have incurred and the body of sin you inherited. We have perfect fellowship, My Son and I, yet, He chose to leave Me and do this so that He may give to Me what My heart's desire is. My heart's desire is to see the fullness of My Son, in all people, to have their lives filled with His Life, with Him. That they are My special treasure for He has been poured out into each one – as they accept and receive His sacrifice and believe Him as Lord and Savior of their lives. They be a people who expand into Him each day – which is My joy and delight. You see, this is what I will ask each one; 'What have you done with My Son?' For today, I see many take the Son of My love and throw Him around like he is some kind of possession of theirs! They slur His name – as if like a magic charm and chant. They use Him, like He is something to be used. They do not realize that they insult Me and insult the work He has done for them. That it is they, that My Son has provided a way that I may USE THEM! Yes, like the day He asked to have the vessels filled with water, so that they would be the wine for the wedding party to drink – are also those who I take and fill with My Son, and USE for others to drink! Many take too lightly the work that was done by My Son, so that they may enter My courts to petition Me. I count this against those, who walk flippantly and without reverence – and who gladly boast of My grace as they do so. Oh, that there be a desire to walk in My Holiness, to desire to understand the cost that has granted this grace, for I will surely reveal this to any who desire to see and understand and it is in your best interest to do so. Many have taken the words 'For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son' for their own meaning. They do not consider that in My Son is all My love bestowed. For in Him is all the fullness. It is because of My love for Him, that has qualified Him to be the one who was able to save all who would believe in Him. Though I love the world – that they would not perish – it is He that is the reason I desire the whole world to be saved, so that each one be filled with Him, the Son of My love and they would bear His Name. Do not think too highly of yourself, that you have been saved and can enjoy My treasures – but instead, understand that He is the reason, and be glorified in You – for you have nothing I desire apart from Him. See how many do not understand this, because they do not know the Son of My love. I counsel you to get to know Him, for He is the life that will be saved and must be found in you.

Who is the Love of your Life?

Many say they are lovers of Me but it is I who can see each heart and what lies within it. For those who truly love Me are ones who strive to love Me with their whole heart, entire mind, and in every part of their soul. And they will seek to love Me with all the strength they have, and will only ask for more - so they may continue to love Me. In these ones, I give what it is they need to seek Me and remain loyal and faithful to Me. I call now, all to look deep into their own hearts – and ask Me if they also have other loves. For I know that many would be surprised to what I will show them. For I do see lovers that they take delight in. I see the (spiritual) fornication they commit. I am jealous and My anger rises over such. Out of such I have a people who come before Me, call on My name and seek after Me, but they do not see they bring their loves and lovers with them – expecting Me to accept and join in with them. They wonder why their prayers are not answered, and they do not have peace and joy in their hearts, they question their faith, they are often depressed and are anxious about life's issues and problems. Today, much of what I have deemed unholy and an abomination is embraced and welcomed in practice and lifestyle within the church. Why is this? It is because there are very few who come before Me to specifically ask of Me to reveal to them their sin and adulteries. Instead, they have justified them through strange doctrines, heretical teaching, the love they have for their sins, and a disobedient heart. Some of these loves they have, have come through difficult life circumstances and is a way they have coped. I AM to be whom and what they turn to. Some of these loves are out of selfish hearts that seek only to be pleased and for pleasure. I AM to be who they take delight in. My heart is to bring the healing each one is in need of and to fill the holes. I watch carefully, because when I see a true heart I act fast for I take joy to fill with it Myself – so I now ask that all would dare to come to Me, and desire that I reveal to them who or what else they may love before or instead of Me. For all who will cut the tie that has taken them captive I will strengthen and restore them to Myself.

I Give Peace for I AM Peace

My Peace is not of this world, therefore it cannot be obtained by anything rooted in this world. Yet I see far too many seeking peace that the world would give – instead of what I have in great supply. The peace that they seek is not lasting nor can it sustain them. My peace is like the strength that will sustain in the greatest of storms that blows to destroy but will not have power over any who seek Me. Instead, this people will not be moved by circumstance or trial, but only be moved by the Living God who will lead and direct each one through whatever is thrown at them or what they must endure. I have said that in this life you will have tribulation – and have never denied this, yet many think that deserve to walk blissfully along in comfort because they believe in Me. This is a snare that has many captive. Rather, I give all what they are in need of to endure, and in this they grow more into My image and experience the reality of who I am through My power to strengthen. To be a believer in My Son, is to also walk in His peace. If you do not experience His Peace, then go back to where you have left Him. Repent from taking your eyes off of Him and placing them onto others, and things to sustain you. I have a people, who say they believe in Me, who would take drugs that doctors prescribe or seek the high of other substances in order that they may experience what these promise – who do not realize what it is they are doing in My sight. They are foolish to take the bait that is straight from the devil's hand for they tread upon a slippery slope downward – away from Me. Be not deceived oh people, My peace is beyond this – substance induced peace that is sought after! Seek not after the peace of this world, realize that this is an offense to Me, for it is the denial of My Son who I have given, the Prince of Peace, seek Him and believe in Him.

My Peace is of Me and I release this to all who seek after Me with hearts that are true. It is the sign of My blessing upon all those who walk in obedience as they trust Me as their Lord. To be a follower of Mine, and not contain My peace – calls for serious investigation for there has been a disconnect.

For anyone to be in reliance upon something other than Myself – to obtain peace – is to deny the Prince of Peace. I say that anyone who denies My Son, I will too deny! Be careful in this warning – for many who feel like they are getting nowhere in their faith, or say I am not answering their prayers, or that they do not 'feel' Me could be the result of in fact that they have denied Me through the many of their choices and this is a spiritual law that cannot be crossed without repercussion. I counsel all to sow into Life through the Spirit and Power of God – seeking Me for all and in this My Peace I will release to you that will guard you, lead you and sustain you. To the Dead Man Walking

The day looms toward, the day of exposure. Nothing hidden will remain covered, did you not know this? You carry on as if this will never be for you deceive others very well, even yourself. You've made a well acted play among all that you know for they see the fake you. Oh, you are so very skilled at presenting the character they all see in you. You are so lovable and kind, everybody's friend. They do not see as I see, the black soul that is within you. How you are a stench to my nostrils. For everything you are, all that you do – I hate with great passion. You are an abomination to Me as you have stored within you My wrath. Did you really think that I would not see? That because you have gotten away with this way of life, that I somehow have overlooked this? This is your deception that will bring you to the pit of hell where you belong! Don't you see that you are My enemy? That I am fixed to bring you to devastation – into eternity? Yet even in this, you still have hope. For I am a God who forgives all who would turn away from the sin that they love and have been imprisoned by. Do not be deceived any longer, for I am not mocked – and will do all as I say I will do; receive all who turn to Me and believe in Me – that I died for all so they would be saved from sin – or, I will judge you and condemn you to death to suffer everlasting for the sins you love so much. You see, My arm is not shortened that it cannot save the gravest of sinner who looks unto Me for Salvation, nor is My wrath able to overlook any who reject the Redeemer of their souls. The day of grace is today, for you – choose this day where you will reside for eternity, do not play any longer the game of death. For each day you continue, is a day where you grow farther from your way of escape. For the suffering you dread now, in the turning from sin – is nothing compared to the suffering that sin will be for you forever – have ears to hear today the cost of sin you enjoy now will be to you – and repent, for truly your life depends upon this. In this day, you will have your eyes opened to the lie you have lived and I will fill you with the Spirit who is truth, the way and life. I will reveal to you who I AM and you will never be the same again!

The Cost

“Do you know Me? Many would say ‘yes!’ without a thought. But I say that only a few know Me, and fewer still, do I know. These words I have spoken, are not really pondered, instead they are counted as for another. I desire to know and to be known – by My own, and this is the basis and qualification of entry into my family. Yet, you will see how many attempt to enter in, by other means that have an appearance of right and good, but are far from Me. I do not accept any who would go these ways. Realize that when My own seek Me, they do so through My Son – and lay down their lives as He did, so they may take up the life that is theirs – that I have given through Him. With each moment they are awake, My own live to lay down their lives – for they do not count them anymore to bare any significance, but it is God that they look to, so they may serve Him. I give power to My own, so they may walk in My ways, in My love, and they give to Me their own lives – daily. This is the exchange of love and intimacy grows from this. As I am known by these I too in turn, know them – it is the act and exchange of love that qualifies this intimacy for it involves cost. As you give, you receive, Me, and as I receive you, I give to you. Though Salvation is free, it by no means without price! Look at it this way; I build you a house, out of material you could never find or copy – a house that will provide for you all that you are in need of and It is there waiting for you. It has been built with such costly goods, there is no comparison, but it is given to you free of cost, for I do not charge anyone for the home I build them, I give it because of the love I have for all and I desire they live in my abode where they will not be in any danger. However, in order for you to actually enjoy this house you must move out of your old house first and leave all that is in the old to enter in the new. There is a cost to you in this great exchange, and that is you must leave all behind to enter in My abode. This is by no means what is often called ‘works salvation’ –instead, it is the logic of Salvation. I give freely to any who want – and to receive there is a cost and that is the cost of dying to self. Salvation is not what so many have made it into, Salvation is in My Son, and to abide in His Life is to receive the gift of new and everlasting life – found ONLY in Him, who is the Way, the Truth and the Life and As His life flows through all who receive Him – this is abiding, where I am known, and I know – all who remain in this posture. This is where living waters are found, for it is My signature in all who are in this place and remain. Do not think that the life of a believer and follower of mine is one of no work! Oh, how far away from the truth this is! I command all who are mind to be about My business – in all they do!

There will be a great many who will state to Me how much they have done for Me, oh the lists they will give of all the good they have done! They read their bibles, attended and served in church, gave to the needy, praised Me and prayed to Me. They have lived lives in word – and in deed, but not in My Spirit! They lived lives of addition and not of subtraction. They added to their lives, and did not count them as dead. They continued to live according to their flesh, their pride and the world. This is the great deception that is consuming Christian circles today! I will say to all of them: ‘Away with you, for I do not know you! You workers of lawlessness!’ For in living you did not consider the words I have spoken – ‘To be one of my disciples you must deny yourself, take up your cross and come follow me!’ They loved their lives too much to give them up – so I could never get to know them and they desired not to be known.

You must die – so you may live! Those who have ears, hear and follow!

The Chamber

Go, go away from this place, the place where Fear dwells. Excuse yourself from all its company and steal away to a place that has been set aside for you, just you. As you make that first move, to turn from Master Fear, it will only be moments where you will see the Door, the Door where hope awaits you. Keep walking away, blocking your ears against the threats that Fear shouts your way. You see, he so makes it all his effort and aim that you would bite what he throws your way for ‘ahhhhh he will say, I’ve captured this one – again! Come away with me now so I may take you as my disciple, we will work well together as you will listen to all I tell you!’ But I tell you, keep walking, do not turn back – for there is the Door, do you not see it? Open it for you have one who wants to meet with you – alone, just you, just Him. ‘How very long My dear one have I thought about you, waiting for this time we would have together. I wanted to scoop you up and away from your tormentor so many times don’t you see for you are inscribed in the very palms of My hands? It was only because your eyes were upon him that you could not see Me nor hear My words to you. My heart is so very tender towards you, for I can feel every inch of you in depths that only I understand. My cry is for you, to come! Come to Me – and find your rest. I rescue all who would only seek to find Me. But know this, I do not take you out of the world, but I bring My world to you – so you may escape all that seeks to destroy you. It is the place where you do not have to Fear anymore. I place My hand upon your heart, and say ‘PEACE! BE STILL! It is the place where though there be the force of (evil) winds blowing upon you, as you keep your eyes upon Me, we will walk upon all that comes against you – like when one walks upon water’ For most certainly there will be troubles for all who will live and breathe upon the earth, but I have made it so that you may overcome, though you are even made to walk in the furnace of fire – fear will not be in your company, not even there! This place that I have made for you and Me is one that cannot be understood let alone explained, it is a place that must be experienced to be part of. It is the forsaking of the relationship man has with Fear – so you may enter into My Chamber I provide for all to join Me. In this place I will tell you things you do not yet know, and where you gladly give to Me what I ask for and where you receive joy unspeakable. Here is where you will truly find peace and My counsel that will sustain you to the end. For as you make this your regular sanctuary, you will no longer hear and obey the voice of Fear. But do not think that he has left, no he will always try, only make it your habit to remain in this place with Me – always! For it was designed for constant habitation! For if you come and go, you are always at risk to be deceived by the clever and cunning Master Fear whose aim is to put you in the place of torment to destroy you and keep you from Me. Though he be cunning in all he does, he never takes you by force, but it is by your own choice and decision, just as with Me.

I am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture. The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly. John 10:9-11

To Those Who Demand Evidence of My Existence

The evidence of My presence is so rich and prevalent that it has been taken for granted. My -fingerprint is upon everything seen and unseen. My fragrance flows through My creation, My nature, My heart and My joy. The landscapes are no coincidence! I designed them. The sunrise and the sunset – I ordered this beauty to complete perfection. The calm seas, and the raging sea – they come from My heart – who I am! The instinctual make up I place in all created things – are evidences of ‘the God particle.’ For the caring of a mother bear, the hovering of the hen for her chicks – did not just happen – I placed this there as a testimony to Myself. Sin, death are clearly seen in creation. Look at a corrupted water well – to drink it would bring sickness and even death. Pick fruit from a tree, how long will it last before it decays. Because Man has been cut off from God through Adam and Eve’s sin, like the fruit cut from the tree, death comes. As surely as that fruit will succumb to decay so will all who choose not the God of Living Water who not only removes the decayed sin, but transforms each into new creations. You have life, you have death – they reveal the reality of sin and righteousness in by design. It is truly the fool who demands evidence of My existence! For the very beating of their heart beats by My word! The sense of touch for comfort, pleasure and pain – did they just randomly come forth? The desire to be loved is this born from the evolution of apes? The mysteries of the human mind and soul – I created and understand completely. Who dares to challenge God with the words that question Him saying, ‘if there was a God then why does He allow suffering?’ This will never be answered for those who have a dark soul. For they ask out of ignorance and arrogance – and do not see how much they contribute to human suffering! For who of these would sell all they have to give to the poor? Who of these would be willing to lay down their lives to give opportunity for another to live? I AM the Living Waters – for all to come and drink and live. For all who come and drink of Me need not to question Me because they are carriers of My witness and testimony of My existence and they live in the reality of My Life. The question to prove the existence of God is not the question to ask. The question to ask is ‘Who Are You Lord?’ As Saul, who later became the apostle Paul did asked. I surely revealed to Him who I was. His life was changed. For now this, when I enter into lives, they do not remain the same, they too are changed. I would reveal to all who asks with sincere heart and they would no longer would they need to ask again! The Power in My Blood

My blood contains life. Life that I have for all who wash with it and is eternal. For you are birthed in sin. The sin is insidious and because you carry around your body – you will always have sin to contend with. This is what it means when John says, ‘if you say you have no sin – you are a liar – and call Him a liar’ for your body is the containment for sin. And this is where the power of My blood comes in. My blood was poured out once – for all and no longer is there any need for another sacrifice and keeps you – safe, in My Kingdom. But My blood is to be continually washing all who seek to be clean before My Father. This is what John was saying when he said’ that if you confess your sin, the blood of Jesus will cleanse you’ So, when it is said– that My blood covers all sin, past, present and future is a truth that has been twisted. In the moment that any lay hold of My sacrifice for them, in truth, I wash them so they may stand before Myself and My Father, blameless but does not stop there. For My blood is living, and must be taken and drank like a perpetual fountain of life. Eat My flesh, drink My blood – this is what this means. You must feed off of this living source that comes from Me – to keep you alive in Me. There is a picture of this when God rained down manna from heaven to sustain the children of Israel wandering in the wilderness. If you did not feed off of the manna, you would die. It was to be taken daily, and handled according to the word of God in His instruction otherwise it would rot Exodus 16. For you have sin in you that I and only I can call out to reveal to you even that it is there! I have said that it is not what you take in – your food that defiles a man Matt 15:16-20. It is the very heart of every man that will defile you. For if you keep sin it is like a catalyst and you will see that what lies in your heart for it will be revealed, no one is immune! My blood covers all who walk in Me, who look to Me seeking the will of My Father. My blood is active and will flush out – all the impurities that are within you but I must have a people who look to Me for this. Instead, I see a great many who believe the lie and say they are saved, and then continue to live as one whose sin remains active and also that that lies dormant. They do not seek Me to show them, they do not seek Me to teach them so I may be a transforming fire within them. This is how you become into My image and likeness! You cannot lay dormant, saying that all is well as you sit in your sin! For in this, you deny you have sin! In this you cannot be cleansed by the power of My Blood! My Grace is what covers all who walk with Me in this way – so they are set apart and the enemy cannot touch them. What I grant is freely given which cannot be worked for – for how can anyone ever build, earn or gain such a gift that has value that mortal man could ever understand let alone attempt to work for it? There is none who would ever boast that they have earned this precious gift of My Blood who walk in its power. That is not to say that because this gift was no cost to you that it be handled in the way that so many handle it. Paul eluded to this when he explained the reason that there were those among them who were sick and dying – because how they handled the blood of Christ and His Broken body 1 Cor 11:29-31. I say, they treated My body and blood as meaningless. This is the same today. ‘Free gift!’ – they cry out to the masses, ‘come and get it, you need only to accept it, believe in Jesus and it is yours and eternity with God is guaranteed!’ This too is meaningless, for tell me, how does this sound to you? Is this how My Father would have you speak of His only begotten Son of His Love? My Spirit speaks otherwise to all who have ears to hear. My Spirit grieves in such environments and is brought to anger at the handling of My Blood – My Life, My Work, a labor of love. I have made the way for any who would come and follow Me. I grant all My grace to walk into the fullness I am – which covers your lifetime. I provide you this, but your eternity depends upon what you do with what I provide you with. For in your body of sin, I in my work, remove it from you. You see, you are covered, and sin does not have power that the wrath of My Father hates over you any longer– though you will contend with sin until you die and it is here where you and I must work to remove it. For I long for a Bride without spot or wrinkle! It is my desire to make her ready – and I am doing this in her for this is what I am speaking to you now. If you are not seeking to be free from sin in your daily life – you must pay careful attention to what I am saying and adjust your thinking! Be not deceived to think that your sin is so very lovable, and harmless and just not that big of a deal.

Walk right and just before Me and you will see the good way. You must carefully consider all that you do so you can do what is right and just. There is no rest for the upright for it is your commission as all who follow after Me. As I counseled Cain with a warning, I say to you; do well and right and you will receive My blessing (grace), but do not – and sin waits very patiently so it may enter in to consume you. Understand that sin does not ever go away and will seize any opportunity you have given it, to enter in. There are so very many who do not consider their ways to see all the sin they allow in their lives, for if they did they would see that My life is nowhere to be found. For I do not dwell where sin is lifted up. Too many do not take time to consult with Me with a heart that is humble for I tell all who seek Me in this way what they must do with the sin they play with, or they do not even yet know of. My blood was poured out before My Father, to satisfy Him on your behalf. I have made a way for your freedom from sin. This freedom is truly reached through a walk done daily – with Me, where we interact. For many think that I buy them freedom and they can continue to sin in that they need not think about it any longer, for ‘Jesus has dealt with it’ they tell themselves. Only the enemy himself could have created this lie that so many live by because he seeks to insult My Blood – and has done so by introducing this ‘doctrine.’ My blood is living and it cleanses the vilest of sin – to where there is no longer any evidence it ever existed. Do you hear this? My blood removes any and all of sins’ power – in lives who apply it. To say there is addiction in the circles of believing people – is to deny Christ! I am not mocked, but you are deceived – for what you sow you will always reap! Where there is addiction – I am not there, for there is no freedom. Do you see? Who has depression? Who struggles with suicidal thoughts? These are all who have not understood truly what I have come to do! I always reveal to all who follow after Me what lies hidden, in My time and My way. But I will never, ever allow any to keep sin – so it brings them to places such as these. If you know that even right now you are practicing sin – you are walking not with Me and are on dangerous ground. Do not justify it to say it is so very small and insignificant. Come before Me now, repent of it – and follow after Me. Seek Me and I will grant to you grace as you live to obey Me. Understand that when your heart seeks its own, you walk out into the devil’s playground of sin. He waits for this so he may pounce upon you to lay hold of you. As with Cain, I granted My grace, but he chose the way of his own heart, and from it sprang murder. You too have many such things that can spring out of your heart, to bring you to your own destruction! Be not deceived – for I am not mocked! My blood is not for any who would continue to walk in sin for to do so is to partake with the Father of sin. My blood cleanses and makes new all who desire to be cleansed from sin! To continue to sow to sin – is to reap not My life, but only death. There are so very many who live lives so cluttered, so filled with confusion, sorrow with no rest.

It is only I that can take you and strip all that has you bound in such places. Oh, but do not treat Me as a quick fix! How many do I hear say these words: 'but I prayed and God did not answer me!' where they give up on Me to continue living their life of futility. No, it will be a walk where I take you day to day, to each knot, each tangle and broken place – one at a time so we may bring the healing and deliverance that My blood supplies. Some I give this to very quickly, for reasons I only hold, and for others it will be the journey I give to them. Understand though, you will be covered in My peace, and My power – as we walk together to your freedom. Nothing compares to My Spirit dwelling with you and you will taste and see that the Lord is truly good.

So the LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry? And why has your countenance fallen? If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin lies at the door. And its desire is for you, but you should rule over it." Gen 4:6,7

For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes atonement for the soul.' Lev 17:11
If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us. 1 John 1:8-10

Deeds Done

For where envy and self-seeking exist, confusion and every evil thing are there. James 3:16

A self-seeking work can easily be disguised as an admirable work. Beware for though it be done with good intentions and in My name it in truth is counted as wicked before His eyes and a snare for you!

For many deeds are done in this way, deceiving and being deceived for they sooth the soul's desire to accomplish and be accomplished, even for those who do things in My name with the intention to bring Me glory. The Holy Spirit who dwells with mine own – does not work in this way. For all that He does and will ever do is bring glory and honor to Me, in that He seeks not for His own elevation and this is how you will prove My will in all things; I do not draw any away from Myself, for in Me is all that you have need of. I do not reveal to you prophesy or revelation that is apart from Me. For My will is always about what you are given -in Me, who you are -in Me and the will of My Father, for you -in Me. I do not take you to any other place – for there is no reason nor any need to do so. All that you ask of Me is found in this – My answer to you is in Me – look in here and you will find what you need to know. Do not be easily found wandering into things that I do not speak of in My Word for you will surely be caught into snares that will bring you into more snares. This is when you will follow after voices that I know not of nor have I sent them to you. Do not attempt to make your life about something other apart from My will. For some make it My will as by force rather than as by submission thereby it is not My will at all! What is my will: It is the same as My Father's which is that you believe on whom He has sent. What does it mean to believe? For in believing, I ask that all who are Mine to lay your lives down – as dead, to count it not! Then you are ready to seek My will to follow Me rightly. You will surely always see that it is not about you – where you will also see that this is good! For in you – on your own, apart from Me there is no good thing! It is about My Life, that I have laid down, so that You may take it up to be yours, then in this way you will be one who testifies Me to all those around you. Selfish ambition is not like this – it seeks its own. To be right and righted. It seeks to be justified before men and given honors due. Do not be deceived to think you are seeking righteousness in doings such as these. No, die first to seek nothing else but Me in all you think, say and do. Do not seek any other or thing above Me. Then I give you the steps that I order for you to walk. I give you insight that will direct you where you will clearly see what it is you need to do. I will bring low the high places –that lie in your heart first, then I will also bring you from the low places to the mountain tops as you submit to Me your self-seeking heart. Be no longer caught in the many things that you feel need to be done, instead come sit at My feet and listen, apply your heart to My words for this is the good and better place to be and we will accomplish much!

The Will of God

It is My will that none would perish, and have given My Son so that whosoever would believe on Him they would escape the wrath I have against sin to attain My forgiveness. My Son is the one who all must look upon in dependence to save your very lives. To take your eyes off of Him is to also take your heart and mind off of Him as well. As long as any live in this world they must keep their eyes upon My Son, so they may not be subject to the plague of sin. Look at my people who wandered with Moses in the wilderness, they were smitten by plague and were dyeing – and I had Moses make a bronze serpent on a pole. Only those who looked upon that pole were spared the death they deserved. For they sinned against Me. Numbers 21:4-9. In the same way, are all who look upon My Son. John 3:14-21. Not once, not twice or when things get bad, but look upon Him continually – in dependence. For in Him there is forgiveness of sins, and escape from My wrath and My protection. To look upon My Son is the work I call for all who would be counted as My own. Understand that looking is believing in Him. I have done all the work for all to enter in My rest and even give to each a measure of faith. For it is by faith that all are saved. What do I require? That you look upon My Son who has died for the sins of man and is now resurrected - and not look away. When you believe in My Son in what He has done, you walk in who you believe and this is your grace and power to overcome this world. I give to all who diligently seek after Me, for I see every heart and know who is true to Me. I encourage all to no longer go about your days doing this or that that is empty of this understanding. Oh how many who walk in futility after their own shallow hearts, though be noble, kind and even righteous. They are deceived for they believe I am there in their midst like a loyal dog! For I am along with them, they reason, as they do their own tasks, projects and plans. In truth, My people are alongside Me, and do My work – and we move in righteousness, peace and joy. This is the right and perfect will I call for all to walk in and can only be done according to how I instruct. For those who do it in their own way they put themselves at risk. For they walk in rebellion and are counted as fair game to the evil one. He continually searches for those who are like these, for then he is able to put to plan ways that he may kill, steal and destroy and to deceive all who turn from Me. Be not foolish to think that you cannot be deceived for you are kept only by My grace from the hand of the evil one and when you choose to venture out into your own way you are walk in his territory. He understands the working of My grace and continually seeks to lure those out from My will and purposes. Look only around you in your churches, groups and in your own hearts and you will see what I say is true. For few seek to do the will of the Father to believe on the Son as their life. Instead this is compartmentalized, and they will look to the Son in a few things and pray and trust and go about the rest according to what is right in their own eyes. Is this you? For this people do not walk in My victory, and the joy I give in peace that passes all understanding and not of this world. No matter how many times you sing Hallelujah to Me or pray in My name – it is empty and void if you do not look upon My Son – as your life, continually. Understand, that the majority speak well of Me with their lips but I see their hearts, and they are far from Me. Each day I give to you. Take it to include Me. Take nothing for granted. Wake up and understand how easy it is to live for yourself being deceived thinking that you live for Me. Come to me, all who see they are thirsty! Come to Me all who labor and heavy laden! Do not come unless you are of earnest heart to find Me so you may live completely in Me. For all who would set out to learn of Me with a pure and diligent heart – I will fill them! Then I will give you desires that are My own desires, you will love with My love, and despise what I hate and enjoy our fellowship every moment of every day. Take our relationship no longer lightly and be willing to lay down what I will reveal to you as we walk together in the light. For when I reveal to you things that must be laid aside, and you continue in them, you walk in your own will, not mine. But also know when I reveal to you what you must lay aside, as you obey, I grant to you grace so you are able to.

Enough time has been spent on the needless. Come now – all who would desire to walk in My fullness, in My will, for it is not for the faint of heart! Yet even I can take the faint heart who would only desire this and will give it strength and courage.

Careful in thinking that you walk well in Me and stand upright! For I seek a people who would see and understand they must depend upon Me continually realizing that I am what will make anyone stand uprightly to walk in the paths that are right. For to put faith in oneself is the last step before a fall and even destruction.

I give all that is needed to accomplish My Will. But do not think you need not give anything! For that will profit you nothing. For a covenant does not only depend upon one person agreeing for it to be binding for all parties involved must be in agreement. In My covenant you have all the promises I give though I did not come for puppets or robots, but for a people who would seek to love their God with all their heart, mind and soul – and I give to those even in this. Love not your own life, but seek Me as your life and I will reveal to you this mystery; Christ in you – the hope of glory. And this is My perfect Will - for you.

Fighting in the Battle to Win

The enemy looks unceasingly upon the souls of men, and even with great anticipation over those who are Mine, watching for when they may take advantage and enter in your life and circumstances. For they can only enter through a right-of-way, though they are able to assist in getting there, through lies and lures so what they tempt with may be of success. It is the responsibility of each man and woman to guard their souls so they do not leave any opening for the enemy to enter in, to gain a foothold. This is why so many of My own suffer needlessly! They have been duped, and remain so because they do not seek Me to give them the answer to the problem they suffer or face. Instead, they look to Me to heal them or take the issue out of their lives. They do not fully believe that the life they live is not physical, but spiritual. That in the spirit if they fought and grew in strength, they would be able to discern and not be so easily overtaken. They do not understand the seriousness that the enemy has a vast army who are skilled in what they do and are able to accomplish a great many fetes because of ignorance. That many things that my people 'deal with' are needless, but they accept them as being part of life, but really what they are is the enemies fingerprint upon their lives. Too many of Mine do not take seriously what must be and that is to quit looking to themselves, man or man's creation to find their answer. Quit searching such things and become serious in your devotion to Me! I tell you, there are far too many who are Mine who die too early because of what they have given to. They still come into My presence they have been stolen from, what they could have. The warnings are very clear as I have given them through My prophets and apostles through the scriptures. They are there for all to lay hold of to put into practice and this is their safe guard. But even in this, the enemy has entered in to create question upon the validity of My word, or if it is even applicable for the believer today. If My people would seek Me, and be of repentant heart, I will enter in, bring light to where they have allowed darkness to overtake to deceive and corrupt. I will reveal to them the truth, step by step. With each truth I reveal, I wait for the acknowledgement and the casting off before I will reveal more. This too, is where many start, but they will be deceived to stop. Understand My people how serious this is! Understand how precious you are in My sight and this is why the enemy seeks to destroy Mine own! Understand that there are spiritual laws. Speak not with a corrupt mouth! In your anger do not sin! Take every thought captive to the obedience of God! Seek to be of pure heart. Do not boast in anything – except your God! Make humility what you wear! Seek not just your own, but for the interest of others! Do you hear in the few words here what I am telling you? Everything done by you is of the law of sin and death or the law of life and liberty. This is why you must not walk carelessly, but be careful in all things in fearful reverence in the things of God for they are what will give you life and peace. Respect what I have said, in ALL the words of scripture My people! Take them to mean something to you, not just a few passages that you have taken a liking to but to the whole counsel I give to you. As you do, it will become alive, and food for you that you will only crave more and will develop a deeper and greater love for. For they speak of who I AM throughout. You see that My own have put themselves under judgement, in what they do, without thinking – because of ignorance! My people perish because of the lack of knowledge that they fail to seek and obey! You cage yourself in to put chains upon you – through many things you have carelessly allowed and participated in and things you have not put a stop to. Do not contend with the enemy as to rebuke him as so very many do thinking they are doing spiritual warfare rather the battle is in how you conduct yourselves in practice through the word I give to you and this will plummet the enemy who contends for you.
